

Communications Co-ordinator Job advert

Leeds Methodist Mission (LMM) are looking for a passionate, motivated individual to join their team as Communications Co-ordinator. We are a new project so this role is to help us grow our audience, promote our events and content, manage a number of communication platforms and shape our brand.

14 hours per week, worked flexibly.

The salary will be £12.35 per hour.

LMM is the Methodist Leeds city centre project; its work is focused on activism, wellbeing, meditation and community. LMM seeks to be a place of Sanctuary, Encounter, Justice and Flourishing. We run the Leeds Craftivists, regular mindfulness and meditation, wellbeing courses, retreat days, a podcast and blog and are building an intentional discipleship community.

If you want to be part of an exciting and growing Christian project then we want to hear from you. For an application pack please contact Anna Bland: anna.bland@ywmethodist.org.uk.

The closing date will be Monday, 19th July 2021 at 9am and we will be interviewing for this role on Wednesday, 28th July 2021.
